Apple reserves the right to further supplement their identification of trial witnesses with additional fact and expert witnesses as may be disclosed in subsequent discovery. As of the date of this filing, discovery, including depositions, is still ongoing. In addition, Apple reserves the right to call any fact and/or expert witness(es) to rebut evidence offered by Plaintiff Mirror Worlds, LLC, (“Plaintiff”) in its case-in-chief. Apple reserves the right to call any witness listed on Plaintiffs’ Witness List. Apple reserves the right to withdraw any fact or expert witness(es) before or during trial. For Apple’s “may call” witnesses, Apple does not currently have information on each of the witnesses’ availability for trial or the burden that it would place on them to appear at trial.

In accordance with the Court’s Docket Control Order, Apple may also introduce testimony via designated portions of depositions, including portions of depositions of Plaintiff’s Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(b)(6) designee(s), portions of depositions of witnesses affiliated or associated with Plaintiffs, and portions of depositions of unavailable witnesses. Apple shall provide its designations in accordance with the timing set forth in the Court’s Docket Control Order.
